Thank you very much — these are very useful and make our reviews much more efficient. I appreciate that you didn't have to do these. Please thank Bob too.

Hi All,

Please see attached box plots and QQ plots for trench and fill units at Parcel E. Plots were reproduced from the Draft Radiological Data Evaluation Findings Report for Parcel E Soil. Note that boxplots and QQ plots have not been produced for trench units TU229 and TU230 and fill unit ES867 (TU343); associated data is not available in FRED dated May 2017. Building survey units are also excluded from this transmittal.

Thanks,
